

Of Good Cheer

There's nothing like feel-good gifts and stocking stuffers to bring merriment to you and yours. — Holly Haber

*Eiseman Collection's celestial 18-karat gold, diamond, and malachite pendant is not only beautiful but also reversible, $2,250 at \*Eiseman Jewels and eisemanjewels.com.

*Wackym Kitchen's crunchy, not-too-sweet cookies and shortbread are delectable; the Grand Platinum tin is packed with a 1.5 pound assortment for $40 at wackymskitchen.com.

Fringe is back in a big way, but is boho style ever really out? The leather Sonora by *Double D Ranch might be the ultimate fringed jacket, $850 at doubledranch.com.

An asterisk indicates the vendor is based in Texas.

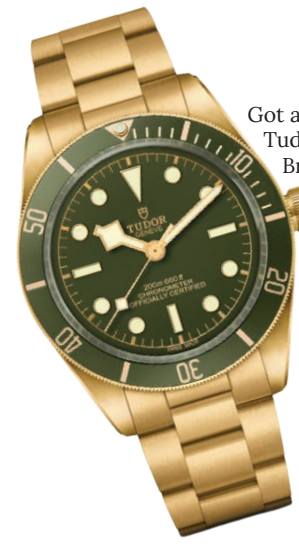

La Crème Libre's dry oil scented with orange blossom and almond tree is perfect after a bath, $35 at \*Marcel Market and marcel-market.com.

Give well while doing good with fair trade coffee and granola from *BeKinder Coffee, a nonprofit Dallas cafe that aids and employs refugees and asylum seekers. BeKinder's tasty, handmade vegan granola ($9) and granola bars ($3), and single origin organic coffees (12 ounces at $16.50 to $18.50 each) make yummy stocking stuffers. *Colleen Rothchild's new Ethereal Glow Serum and Hydrashine Lipstick Balm do double duty, moisturizing and plumping while imparting glossy color. In Champagne or Bronze, the serum is $38, and the balms are $28 each at colleenrothschildbeauty.com.

Got a seaman in your life? Tudor's new Black Bay 58 Bronze model nods to the bronze on old ships and deep-sea diving equipment. $4,775 at \*Eiseman Jewels and eisemanjewels.com.

"Beautiful colors" are the inspiration for Katie Laws' artwork; her original "Budding Tree" acrylic painting (18x22 inches framed) is $900, and an unframed 11x14-inch print is $40 at katielaws.art.

Those who esteem the gothic animation preceding PBS's "Masterpiece Mystery" will go gaga for "E is for Edward: A Centennial Celebration of the Mischievous Mind of Edward Gorey" by Gregory Hischak, curator of the Edward Gorey House in Yarmouth Port, Mass. The 376-page biography, $60, chronicles his life, books, and illustrations.

*Kate Weiser's hand-painted chocolates are as luscious as they are lovely. A 24-piece holiday tin of myriad flavors is $80 at kate-weiserchocolate.com.

Sweetieboosh's "Stencil" pup by Emily Maddigan is a whimsical 10x10x16-inch sculpture crafted of foam, sequins, pins, brass stencils, motorcycle inner tubes, and chain, $1,800 at sweetieboosh.com.
